INTELLIGENT DATA-DRIVEN

TethrIt NOW

Scalable, Real-Time Support for Modern Dealerships

Technicians shouldn't have to solve everything alone. TethrIT Now brings expertise directly to them—no matter where they are.

- TethrIT Now is a remote diagnostics and support platform that connects your team and customers with live, guided technical expertise.
- From reducing truck rolls to closing more revenue-generating service opportunities, TethrIT Now gives your team the power to fix faster, smarter, and more profitably.

With this tool, you're not just solving issues—you're creating scalable, high-impact results across your service team.

Diagnose. Guide. Resolve—From Anywhere.

Every minute your machines are down, you're losing money. These capabilities are designed to reduce that downtime drastically.

- Real-time remote support via video and screen share
- Live workflow guidance to walk junior techs through troubleshooting
- Split-screen call + workflow interface for full context
- Multiple participants and session persistence for complex issues
- Auto documentation and media capture during support calls

This is how modern support should work—real-time, documented, and always connected.

Why Should You Adopt TethrIt Now?

Faster Fixes. Fewer Dispatches. Higher Revenue. Your dealership can't afford inefficiencies in service. TethrIT Now fixes that at the source.

- Save time and reduce costs by resolving issues remotely
- Equip junior techs with structured workflows created by senior experts
- Improve first-time fix rates and reduce mean time to resolution
- Increase revenue by accelerating job completion and technician availability

Fewer delays, faster completions, and more revenue—without overloading your team.

Scale Technician Knowledge Across Your Entire Operation

Your senior techs hold years of knowledge—TethrIT Workflows make that expertise scalable and repeatable.

- Custom workflows tied to equipment make/model
- Step-by-step guides with images, video, and response fields
- Standardize support processes and improve consistency
- Empower junior staff with real-time expert guidance
- Auto-generate documentation for training and performance analysis

When every tech follows the same high standard, your entire service department performs better.

Turn Every Inspection Into a Revenue Opportunity

TINspections isn't just a digital form—it's a frontline sales tool your technicians can carry in their pocket.

- Complete inspections digitally from a mobile device
- Multi-OEM inspection support in one unified platform
- Scoring and service recommendation system to trigger follow-ups
- Attach images, video, and use voice-to-text for speed and clarity
- Share completed inspections with customers directly
- Assign inspections to TechNow jobs for integrated service workflows

Every completed inspection is a chance to upsell, retain customers, and prove your value.

From Support Call to Sales Opportunity

It's not just about fixing faster—it's about generating measurable ROI with every service interaction.

- Cut unnecessary dispatches by up to 30%+
- Reduce resolution times by 40%+ with workflows and expert guidance
- Improve upsell potential with inspection-driven service quotes
- Free up techs to take more jobs, boosting revenue per technician

These numbers aren't just impressive—they're achievable. And we'll show you how.

The Only Remote Support Platform Built for Dealership Service Teams

VizaLogix doesn't build one-size-fits-all tools. We build dealership-first solutions that solve your everyday challenges—service inefficiencies, skill gaps, and missed revenue from field calls.

- Purpose-built for equipment, truck & ag dealers
- Seamless integration with TechNow, TINspections, and your existing systems
- Helps you scale expertise, support your team, and generate more revenue—faster

TethrIT Now is more than just remote support. It's part of a connected ecosystem that empowers your technicians to deliver expert-level service, identify upsell opportunities, and complete jobs faster—all while creating actionable data for your team.

Technician NOW + TethrIt NOW + TINSpections

One Connected Platform to Power Service Revenue

Technician Now, TethrIT Now, and Tinspections work together to create a continuous, revenue-generating service loop - turning every technician into a frontline revenue generator.

- TethrIT Now: Enable real-time remote video support to resolve simple issues without dispatch and escalate complex ones instantly
- Technician Now: Assign the right technician with the right parts, reduce travel time, and improve first-time fix rates through intelligent scheduling
- Tinspections: Empower field techs to complete QC/QA checks, upsell service or equipment through digital inspections, and document rent-in/rent-out processes with full visibility

By unifying diagnostics, dispatch, and inspections into one seamless experience, this integration unlocks new revenue channels and elevates service performance across the board.
